EDITOR'S CORNER

As you peruse this edition of the UNP Journal you might notice a new name under the Editor by-line. Richard Powers, who has so effectively produced many of the last few years worth of Journals has moved back to Europe and decided not to continue as UNP Editor.

In a fit of utter madness, I volunteered to assume the role of UNP Editor. On the off-chance that I will survive this madness, and if anyone really cares, the following is a quick bio on myself: I'm a transplanted New Yorker (at the age of 3) to California. I hold several degrees in Law, History & Business. And I collect almost everything UN related there is except meters (sorry Mr. Meyer).

I hope to make a number of changes in the structure and design of the Journal. In case, you missed the mailing I did, I am looking for a number of would-be authors who wish to write regular columns for the Journal. If interested please write me care of the address on the inside cover.

CONFERENCE NEWS

By B. Clement. Jr.

The 25th General Conference of UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization) was held at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris, France from October 17 to November 16, 1989. A special stamped imprint was used on UNESCO official mail concerning the conference. This imprint is shown as figure 1.

The Third Session of the First General Conference of UNIDO (United Nations Industrial Development Organization) was held in Vienna, Austria from November 20 to 24, 1989. UNPA-Vienna used a special postmark for the conference. This imprint is shown as figure 2.

A special cancellation for a 1988 conference has just come to light, thanks to UNOPost Journal. The 16th FAO Regional Conference for Europe was held in Krarow, Poland on August 23 to 26, 1988. The cancellation for the conference is shown in figure 3.

UNPA PRESS RELEASE

In support of the United Nations and the World Health Organziation's (WHO) declaration that conquering AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) necessitates a global effort, the United Nations Postal Administration will issue a set of six (6) stamps (See Figure 1) that bear the message "Fight AIDS Worldwide." The stamps will be issued on March 1990.

Three of the six stamps, one in each language, are similar in design, carrying a colourful graphic depiction of the word "AIDS." These stamps were designed by Jacek Tofil of Poland and are in the denominations of .25 cents, F.s. 0,50 & S 5. The other three stamps bear individual designs. The .40 cent stamp was designed by Fritz Henry Oerter of the Federal Republic of Germany. The stamp depicts a group of people with a shadow hanging over them. The F.s. 0,80 stamp, designed by Lee Keun Moon of the Republic of Korea, consists of a scientific illustration of man. And the S 11 stamp, designed by Orlando Pelaez of Colombia, is an abstract illustration of people surrounding a cell-like shape.

The printing is being done by J. Enschede en Zonen, Netherlands. The printing of the stamps is by offset lithography.

In addition to the stamps the United Nations will issue its first 1990 souvenir card picturing all six stamps, and is inscribed with a message from Javier Perez de Cuellar, Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Along with the stamps and Souvenir Card as special first day hand-cancellation will be available in New York (Figure 2), Geneva & Austria (Figures 3).

Figure 3

INTERPEX '90 will coincide with a First Day of Issue, therefore, a special show cachet will be available as illustrated below (Figure 4).

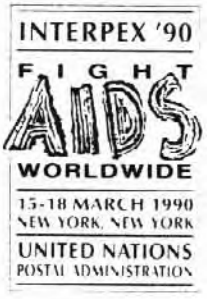

Figure 4

The mailing address of the show is INTERPEX '90 C/O A.S.D.A., 3 School Street, Suite 205, Glen Clove, New York 11542. Collectors wishing to obtain the cachet should send a SASE to the above address. Only UN/New York stamps are acceptable.

A SALUTE TO HUMAN RIGHTS

A Souvenir from WORLD STAMP EXPO

By Richard Powers

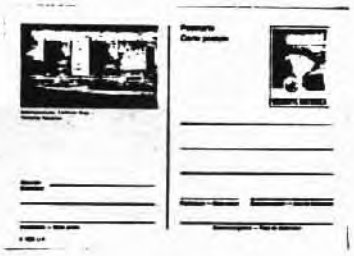
Above is pictured my self-made souvenir of my visit to WORLD STAMP EXPO. At the UNPA stand I bought a standard show card which bears a printed show cachet and the 1988 Human-Rights 25¢ commemorative "cancelled" in New York on the opening day of the show on the picture side. On the address side I added a 1989 Human-Rights stamp, which received the Washington first day cancellation. In the lower left corner is a rubber-stamped show cachet. I left the card at the UNPA stand on December 2nd. I received the card in the mail on January 4, 1990. The USPS postal routing marks seen on the picture side inside the wreath hand cancel testify to the fact that this item actually went through (and survived) the mail. Postally used UNNY items with legal cancellations outside New York City are unusual. The combination of the two recent Human-Rights stamps on the Human Rights-related show card makes a nice philatelic item.

RATE CHANGE AFFECTS VIENNA POSTAL CARD

By Duane E. Lamers

The S4 postal card issued for use at Vienna (A/UX3) now requires additional postage for valid use. The domestic rate for postal cards increased on January 1, 1990 to S4.50.

The card was originally released for use to the CEPT countries and Czechoslovakia. Within a few months of its May 10, 1985 release date the CEPT rate increased along with the domestic tariff. Beginning on February 1, 1986 the CEPT rate became five schillings and the value of the printed card only met the domestic tariffs. The very design of the card, with a printed line for country of destination, indicates its original intended international purpose.



A/UX3

A/UX2

All UNPA stationary produced in recent years remains valid for use if it carries sufficient postage. Older domestic and international rate cards from New York no longer meet size requirements and so, in effect, are demonetized.

The current S5 card (A/UX2) remains valid for use to CEPT countries, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia since the recent rate hike did not affect this category of mail. The overseas rate of six schillings for postal cards likewise remains the same, although there are no postal cards issued at this current rate.

Proposed USPS rate increases, now being publicized, will undoubtedly affect all New York stationary currently available, requiring additional postage for continued use.

DOLLAR DEFINITIVE IN THIRD PRINTING

By Duane E. Lamers

Since the UNPA first went into business back in 1951, the Postal Agency has produced four one-dollar stamps. Three of them have been definitives. The first issue stamp was printed seven times. Its 1966 successor had five printings.

The current stamp, first issued in 1978, and reprinted in 1984, was reissued in a third printing of 400,000 on September 27, 1989. Information about this new printing first appeared in press releases late in December.

SCOTT #293

Even the philatelic hawkeye is not likely to spot any significant differences in this printing. Only a close examination, and comparison to its predecessors, will bring out the differences.

The colors of Scott 293.3 are more brilliant and deeper, and the inks produce a uniform gloss not seen on earlier printings. Two or three of the colors, notably the purple, possessed more of a matte finish on the earlier printings. the border inscription has glossy highlights, as it does on the original printing. The gum has the characteristics of the first reprint, although it seems to be just a shade lighter or whiter.

The ultraviolet lamp reveals a heavily mottled paper of a deep blue-violet shade. This mottling, perhaps, explains why the gum side is less brilliant and more bluish than previously seen.

The stamp is not seeing as much use these days. Perhaps the three-dollar stamp has taken over some of its duties.

Now, what was that fourth dollar stamp?

ORIGIN CACHETS USED BY THE UNITED NATIONS IN NEW YORK

By B. Clement, Jr.

Previous articles in the Journal have listed origin cachets used by the United Nations in Geneva, by various specialized agencies in Geneva and Bern, by UNESCO in Paris and by the League of Nations in Geneva. This article lists known origin cachets used by the United Nations in New York. An origin cachet is a stamped imprint placed on outgoing mail indicating the office from which the mail originated.

Many of the Geneva cachets have a common format (abbreviation or acronym in a box) and appear to be official in origin and serve some purpose in the mail handling process. The New York cachets vary greatly and probably were created for a variety of purposes. Some, such as those with only a person's name, may be of private origin.

Many of these cachets are fairly large and are reduced in size for this listing; such items have the approximate full size horizontal dimension listed in millimeters. The years and colors of observed cachets are listed. Many of these cachets are self explanatory. Where there is an abbreviation or acronym, this is explained if possible. Where only an office number is given, the occupant of the office is listed if known; however, most of these are unknown at present.

Readers who have examples of unlisted cachets or additional information on listed cachets are urged to submit a photocopy to the writer. Please give the color of the cachets submitted.

NEW STAMPS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AT THE HAGUE

By Konrad Schraer

[Translated by Richard Powers from an article published in the October 1989 issue of UNOPost, the Journal of the UNOP.]

On October 24, 1989 the Post Office of the Netherlands issued the first three values of the new "International Court of Justice" (ICJ) series for the three common postage rates 55 ct (printed matter), 75 ct (first class letter), and 7 G (Guilder) (registered letter). In all there should be seven values. The four remaining values (65 ct, 1 G, 1.5 G, and 5 G) will appear on October 23rd of this year.

At the present time it is not possible to stamp all items of mail with just these three ICJ stamps or combinations thereof. As a result the following temporary rules are in effect:

> "Until October 23, 1990 certain regular Netherlands' numeral stamps (the 5 ct, 10 ct and 25 ct denominations of the Crouwel type) may be used to supplement the three new values.
> Combinations of the old ICJ stamps issued before 1989 and the new stamps are not allowed, and are not even possible, since the previous ICJ series has been declared invalid for future postal use."

In contrast to all earlier ICJ stamps, which were only available cancelled, the new stamps can be purchased either mint or cancelled. While the mint stamps can be purchased at every philatelic window at post offices throughout the Netherlands, the cancelled stamps are available only at the philatelic window of the main post office in the Hague or through the Philatelic Agency whose address is as follows:

PTT Post Filatelie
Postbus 30051
NL 9700 RN Groningen
The Netherlands

The stamps will have the cancel "s-Gravenhage - Vredespaleis." The order number is 80 01 10 "International Court of Justice" stamps.

For the first time visitors to the Peace Palace may post their own mail with these new stamps. One simply has to use the mail boxes in the Peace Palace for items bearing such postage. The stamps are not valid for use outside the Peace Palace.

Because these stamps are considered definitive stamps, there is cur-
